2. Role description of a member of the Corporation

- 2.1. The Corporation is committed to promoting equality and diversity and seeks to constitute the membership of the Corporation as closely as possible to the balance of the communities it serves. The Corporation will seek members who appear to the Corporation to have the necessary skills to ensure the Corporation carries out its functions under article 3 (1) of the Articles of Government.

- 2.2. The Corporation requires all members to be committed to the Nolan Principles of Public life, adhere to the Governors Code of Conduct and to act in the best interests of the Group declaring an interest whenever necessary and be prepared to devote time to support the work of the Group by regularly attending meetings of the Corporation, Committees and Advisory Groups, as appropriate (see appendix 1 – Role Description of a member of the Corporation.)

3. Expiry of the term of office of an existing Governor

- 3.1. The Director of Governance shall report to the Corporation the name of any Governor / Co-opted Governor whose term of office is nearing its expiry. Any Governor under consideration shall withdraw from the meeting and take no part in the decision or voting in relation to his/her future membership of the Corporation.
- 3.2. In considering whether or not the governor should be appointed to serve for a further term of office the Corporation shall base its decision on the following:
 - 3.2.1. Whether the skills and experience of the governor are still required
 - 3.2.2. Whether it would be appropriate to take the opportunity to refresh the range of skills and experience available to the Corporation
 - 3.2.3. Consideration of the governor's attendance record, performance at meetings and contribution and commitment to the work of the Corporation
 - 3.3.3 The length of the governor's previous service on the Corporation
- 3.3. A governor's term of office will expire automatically unless the Corporation agrees a further appointment.
- 3.4. In line with the Nolan Committee Second Report, the Corporation has agreed as a general rule to limit the number of terms of office of governors to no more than two consecutive terms of four years in office (a maximum of eight years). Any exceptions to this rule will be based on merit and in order to ensure no detriment to the smooth conduct of the business of the Corporation.
- 3.5. The decision to reappoint a governor for a further term of office will also be subject to the governor being willing to serve. The Director of Governance will ascertain in advance of a Search and Governance meeting whether the governor in question is willing to be appointed for a further term. If the governor is not willing, a vacancy arises and will be dealt with under section 4 of this policy. The Search and Governance Committee will make their recommendation to the corporation.
- 3.6. Where the Corporation decides to appoint an existing governor for a further term of office, the Corporation shall make the appointment in accordance with the Instrument of Government Clause 4.
- 3.7. Where the Corporation decides not to appoint an existing governor for a further term of office, a vacancy shall exist and shall be dealt with under section 4 of this policy.

4. Filling of vacancies

- 4.1. When a vacancy arises, for whatever reason, the Search and Governance Committee will review the skills required by the role, and interview prospective candidates. This will be informed by the current skill mix required and specified by the Corporation.

4.2. The Director of Governance will identify suitable candidates via a mix of the following (not an exhaustive list):

- Advertisements in the local press /College website/LinkedIn NB: Any advertisement will include the College's Safeguarding statement;
- Advertisements with Governor search services ()
- Advertisements with the Non-Executive Directors network;
- Targeted mail-shot letters from the CEO;
- Personal recommendations from members of the Corporation;
- A direct approach from the CEO / Chair of the Corporation to local authorities or organisations/voluntary bodies linked to the TEC Partnership;
- Contacts within the TEC Partnership's local communities.

4.3. Applications shall be submitted in writing to the Director of Governance.

4.4. In selecting new Corporation members the Chair of the Corporation, CEO and Director of Governance (or by the Search & Governance Committee established by the Corporation for this purpose) will shortlist suitable candidates, interview candidates and make recommendations to the Corporation.

5. Staff and Student Governors

5.1. Staff Governors (Instrument of Government Clauses 2.1(c), (3) & (4) and are elected by their respective groups across the Group.
Student Governors (Instrument of Government Clauses 2.1 (d), (3) & (4) will be nominated by their respective group (FE/ HE/ North Bank and South Bank) and the recommendation for appointment will be given by the Search and Governance Committee.

5.2. Whenever a vacancy in these categories occurs, the Director of Governance will support and coordinate the holding of appropriate elections. The results of the elections will be reported to the Corporation for confirmation and ratification of appointment.

6. Chief Executive Officer

6.1. In accordance with the Instrument of Government, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) shall be a member of the Corporation.

6.2. Separate arrangements apply to the selection and appointment of the CEO.

7. Eligibility

7.1. No person who has been adjudged bankrupt or is subject to a bankruptcy order or undertaking or has been convicted of an offence, as defined under Instrument of Government clause 7, will be eligible for membership. A person shall also be disqualified if that person is disqualified from acting as a charity trustee under the Charities Act 2011 (as amended from time to time).

- 7.2. All members of the Corporation will, on appointment confirm their eligibility for appointment and annually thereafter.
- 7.3. A condition of appointment for all governors is that they must:
- 7.3.1. Declare their interests in the form prescribed by the Corporation.
 - 7.3.2. Agree to abide by the Governors Code of Conduct approved by the Corporation.
