

SAFEGUARDING 'HONOUR' BASED VIOLENCE

What is 'honour' based violence (HBV)?

HBV is the term given to the various forms of violence and abuse perpetrated against girls and women by family or community members in the name of 'honour'. The abuse is typically carried out in a collective and planned way. HBV is not limited to any one particular society, community, culture, religion, class or ethnic group. Women and girls are the most common victims of HBV. However, it can also affect men and boys.

How to get help

Speak to any member of staff or email your concerns to the college's Safeguarding Team at safeguarding@grimsby.ac.uk

Other support

www.gov.uk/forced-marriage - 0800 028 3550 (24 hours)

nspcc.org.uk - 0808 800 5000

ChildLine - 0800 1111 (24 hours)

We're here to help you safeguarding@grimsby.ac.uk 07920 860241